Re: Deposit Account No. 02-2275

Dear Sir:

The undersigned firm has been reviewing their American Express account and there are some changes that have to be made and the overcharges should be applied to the above deposit account number.

On February 4, 2002 with respect to trademark registration No. 2,021,547, there was a request for a $600.00 charge as can be seen from the copy of the PTO Form-2038 filed herewith but instead, $1,000.00 was charged. Therefore, the overcharge of $400.00 should be credited to the above account.

On January 10, 2002 with respect to application Serial No. 09/980,771, there was a request for a charge of $170.00 as can be seen from the PTO Form-2038 enclosed herewith. Instead, there was a charge of $890.00 plus $18.00 and therefore, the overcharges should be credited to the above deposit account. Refund Done

On January 11, 2002 with respect to application Serial No. 09/364,992, there was a request for a $55.00 charge as can be seen from the copy of PTO Form-2038 submitted herewith. Instead, there were three $55.00 charges and therefore, the above account should be credited with the overcharge of $110.00. Refund Done

On October 24, 2001 with respect to application Serial No. 09/299,382, there was a request for a charge of $1,130.00 as can be seen from the enclosed copy of PTO Form-2038. Instead, there was a charge of $1,130.00 on January 23 and 18, 2002. Therefore, the above account should be credited with the overcharge of $1,030.00. If there are any questions concerning this, please contact the undersigned.

With best wishes, we are,

Yours very truly,
Bierman, Muserlian and Lucas
